He was much likely interested in the religious discourse through the virtuous bearings. He began contributing towards the social goodness through his otherworldly discourse. The well-known book by his Guru is "Jeevanadarsh and Atmaanubhooti" in light of the perfect and otherworldly existence of the Paramhans Paramanand. These accumulations are the sign of his life layout including different shocking occurrences.

He is an incredible holy person who has never announced about his accomplished godlikeness. He has introduced himself just to the integrity of the general public individuals and helps them to know the truth of the genuine truth. It is viewed as that he was profoundly ruminated for the long fifteen years (with no nourishment, water or rest) in the closeness of his Guru. Swami ji wrote Yatharth Geeta.

What is Yatharth Geeta

The Geeta was first portrayed by Lord Krishna to the Arjuna amid the Mahabharata (war amongst Kauravas and Pandavas) which can be depicted as a religious serenade communicating the profound gospel. It is a rhythmical discussion between the celestial educator and the conferred understudy. Geeta was first clarified by Lord Krishna to the Arjuna amid the war. In any case, it was likewise tuned in by the Sanjay from a remote place. This heavenly vision of the Sanjay was talented by the Ved Vyas.

The Geeta is everything which can't be educated; it must be acknowledged and experienced through the dedication. It demonstrates to us the genuine way of life which goes towards the illumination.
